D G D A

D G
How could it be that the King of all glory
D A
Hung on a tree and died for me?
D G
How could it be that the fullness of heaven
D A
Took on flesh to set me free
D G
Oh, how could it be?

D G
Who could imagine? How could this be?
D A
The Giver of Life breathes His life into me?
D G
With all that I've done and with all that I am
D A
I've been redeemed by Mercy's hands!

Love everlasting, life without end
I'm lost in the wonder of mercy again
Beauty for ashes, death into life
I stand forgiven, glory is mine!

D G D A
All we can do is offer up ourselves to You
D G D A
All we can do is offer up ourselves to You
D G D A
All we can do is offer up ourselves to You
D G D A
All we can do is offer up ourselves to You
