CHAPTER SIX: Oh No, I Messed Up! What Now?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS:

1. Can you remember a time when you messed up in front of an audience while trying to lead worship? How did it make you feel to mess up in that capacity? How did you respond? How did the people around you respond?
2. Can you remember a time when you were trying to lead worship in front of an audience and someone else in the band messed up? How did they respond? How did the other people in the band respond? How did the whole scenario make you feel, personally?
3. Why do you think it is so important for us to take responsibility for our own mistakes?
4. In what ways do you think a momentary musical mess-up can actually make you better in the long run?
5. Thinking back to times when you made musical mistakes during a congregational worship service, what do you think were the key factors that led to those mistakes? What has been instrumental in helping you to do better afterwards?
